

About Training

Training plays an important role for human resource development in Civil Defence and Fire Services-

Training in Civil Defence has been planned with three-tier concept i.e., at district level, at State level and also at National level. National Civil Defence College, Nagpur a subordinate training establishment of the Ministry, is the training institute for the training of the State trainers and also conducts some special and advanced training courses. At State Level There is a Training Institute Civil Defence Training Institute, Rajasthan, Jaipur In the year 2009, the Government of India gave approval to the state to create a state level "Civil Defence Training Institute, Rajasthan". The administrative control of the said training institute is under the Director Civil Defence Training Institute, Rajasthan. At present the Joint Secretary to the Government, Disaster Management, Relief and Civil Defence, Jaipur has the additional charge of Director, Civil Defence Training Institute. For the administrative arrangements and training of the said institute, necessary posts of officers/personnel are approved as per the guidelines issued under Civil Defence Act 1968, General Principles of Civil Defence 2003 and Civil Defence Compendium 2011.

Fire Service Training for lower level functionaries is conducted at Civil defence training institute rajasthan, Jaipur and at national level NDRF Academy and National Fire Service College, Nagpur. For catering the training requirement of officer's cadre of Fire Service, National Fire Service College (NFSC) was established at Nagpur in 1956 which conducts various certificate, diploma and advance diploma courses approved by AICTE for career development of fire professional. Since 1978, the college is also conducting a 4 years B.E (fire) Engineering course. Fire Service Training for lower level functionaries is conducted at State Fire Training Centres. At present, 10 such Training Centres are operating under various States/UTs and Central Ministries for catering the training requirement of their own and also for training of Sub-Officers course for the age barred in service personnel, under the aegis at National Fire Service College, Nagpur.